Guide to the temporary importation of goods under Section 162A of the Customs Act 1901

Only goods which are eligible for temporary admission under the relevant provisions of the International Conventions may be imported under Section 162A of the Customs Act 1901.

Documents to be produced: Form 46AA application; invoice; inwards waybills; Import Permit from relevant Authority (if applicable); Training Entry.

When the application has been approved upon taking either a security or an undertaking, a Security Concession Number (SCN) is issued.

The correct SCN and Treatment Code 353/354 must be quoted on the COMPILE application.

Goods imported under Section 162A of the Customs Act 1901 must be exported on or before the expiry date of the security.

If the terms of the security are not complied with, the security will be enforced (cash deposit transferred to revenue, or (for an undertaking) a debit note issued).
